HOPE FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Grief is hard, and special days and holidays seem to make it harder. This seminar helps answer the question, “What can I do to navigate the upcoming holiday season or special days?” It also provides practical tools and stories from those who have experienced loss and found Hope for the Holidays.

THE IMPACT

Our Hope for the Holidays Seminar served 61 individuals. We hosted our in-person participants at Plymouth First United Methodist Church and offered a virtual option to make our program more accessible to all grievers.

96% of participants felt more hopeful about the future

96% of participants felt connected to other participants

100% of participants found the speakers’ presentations beneficial and helpful

THANK YOU

We want to express our heartfelt gratitude to our sponsors, grantors, and volunteers. The 2025 Hope for the Holidays Seminar successfully provided much needed support to grievers who have experienced the loss of a loved one as they navigate the holiday season. Our ability to continue to offer this special seminar at no cost is especially meaningful during the holidays. We are blessed to have your continued support for our mission to provide hope, healing, and new beginnings to individuals grieving the death of a loved one. We are sending our wishes for a happy and healthy holiday season to you and your loved ones.
