DEAR NEW HOPE SUPPORTER,

Grief touches every one of us, yet too often, people are left to navigate it alone. At New Hope Center for Grief Support, we believe no one should have to grieve in isolation. For more than 25 years, we've offered free programs for children, families, and adults—helping over 25,000 people find hope and healing.

Did you know, amongst those aged 55 and over, almost 1 in 10 has experienced the loss of a spouse. Grief isn't just an "emotional" process: it can have lasting and measurable effects on mental and physical health.

Grief peer support offers emotional validation, reduces isolation, and fosters healing through shared experiences. It creates a safe space for individuals to express their grief and find hope among others who truly understand.

Your generosity makes this possible. With your support, we can expand groups, train more facilitators, and provide resources that bring comfort when it's needed most. Together, we can ensure that every grieving heart finds hope
Thank you for being part of this mission.

Jennifer Frush
Warm regards,
Jennifer Frush
Executive Director

TESTIMONIAL

When we lost our son and their brother, Jacob, just before his 13th birthday (2/23/2010) on Valentine's Day 2023, our world stopped. He was leaving school and trying to get on his school bus when it tragically ran him over. The pain and shock were unimaginable — not only for me, but for his younger sisters, Lizzie and Carly, who adored him, as well as for his older brother Dallas.

Finding New Hope and the Circles of Hope program has meant more to our family than words can express. The emotional support, understanding, and kindness we've received have helped us start to heal together. My girls have found comfort in being around other children who truly understand what it feels like to lose someone they love. They've learned to talk openly about Jacob — to share stories, memories, and even laughter again.

The camps, along with monthly and weekly sessions, are something they always look forward to. Camp, especially, has become a place where they can remember Jacob with joy and connect with others who remind them they're not alone.

As a mother, I'm so grateful for the compassion and hope this community has given us. New Hope has shown us that even in deep grief, healing and connection are still possible.
