NEW HOPE 2025 Kid's Camp HITTING GRIEF OUT OF THE PARK

Grief is a profound experience that uniquely impacts children. New Hope's Kid's Camp will help bereaved children navigate their grief journey by helping them connect with other grieving children to know they are not alone, learn about the emotions and reactions associated with grief, and to grow through grief by developing healthy coping skills to help them grow through the experience.

New Hope's "Hitting Grief Out of the Park" will be held on July 24th-25th. Camp is free of charge and open to children impacted by the death of a loved one.

Unresolved grief can lead to a personal mental health crisis. The vast majority of bereaved children do not require treatment in a clinical setting. But all of them require loving people in their lives who understand the depth of their loss and are dedicated to their well-being. "Hitting Grief Out of the Park" with New Hope can provide social and emotional support to help bereaved children thrive.
